TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR GIRLS

- First—thou shalt not think thyself the fairest one alive. Nor tell thy friends when thirty Thou art only twenty-five.
- Second—thou shalt not flirt with men. Nor win their hearts in play. The spinner of tomorrow The maiden of today.
- Third—Go light on talcum. For before they're sweet sixteen, Some girls chalk up their features Till they look like Marceline.
- Fourth—If thou shouldst some day find Thy hair is growing thin, Thou shalt not sport the pigtail Of a Chinese mandarin.
- Fifth—If indigestion's blight Upon thy life should come, Partake of liquid pepsin. For thou shalt not chew gum.
- Sixth—Thou shalt not try to squeeze Thy foot into a shoe That ought to be a number four, But is a number two.
- Seventh—On trashy novels Thou shouldst never learn to gloat, But spend thy time on politics. For thou wouldst some day vote.
- Eighth—Thou shalt not gossip Nor give ear to every tale The female of the species Would be better off in jail.
- Ninth—Don't act the clinging vine When visitors come in And next day lead a bargain rush To buy a paltry pin.
- Tenth—Assist thy mother And don't be inclined to roam. The angel of the lover Is the angel of the home. —Chattanooga Times.

APACHE CO. ROAD BONDS
Apache county will shortly issue $125,000 worth of State road bonds. The bonds are to be issued by the supervisors without the formality of an election, for 85 per cent of the taxpayers have signed a petition asking that the issue be authorized. Last summer Apache county expended the proceeds of a $30,000 bond issue, but the citizens decided that they had made only a start.

DREAM OF FREEDOM

Inscribed to my nephew, John E. Stephen, Editor of the Rosenberg News-Herald, Rosenberg, Texas.

Oh, dream of youth,
By potent truth
Shed forth thy blessings benign,
Said the Christ-child,
With his message mild
To the world again for the sign.

That war will cease,
When men at peace
Shall break the trusted sword,
And drink light Divine
Which ever will shine
O'er the lands that shall plenty afford.

When grasping greed
Which oppresses need
Shall fall to rise nevermore;
But will writhe in shame,
When men will proclaim
The Day Star shining on the shore.

By His bright beams
With heavenly gleams
On the world in darkness prone,
Shedding His rays
O'er its darkest days
Then we shall never be alone.

But bask in sweet love
From the throne above
We'll dwell in the land all at peace,
Then brother's blood
No more like a flood
Shall flow o'er the land with increase.

But the message fraught,
By angels brought
From the shores of the Heavenly land,
Shall rule with power
When dark clouds lower,
And shield us by the Divine hand.
WM. E. STEPHEN.

Republican Tells of the Great Doings on July 4th

The big posters advertising the celebration of Independence Day in Safford, reached Phoenix and the Arizona Republican, and that great newspaper gives the following write-up of the events that will take place on our natal day:

Safford Lodge No. 860, Loyal Order of Moose, is going to hold a Fourth of July celebration that will be a real treat. According to a flaming blue black poster received yesterday by Receiver John J. Birdno, of the U. S. Land Office, the coming Independence Day in his own home town will be the greatest holiday ever held in an eastern Arizona city.

Commencing with the time honored parade, the celebration features will run the gamut of sports, speaking and specialties. Cowboys will romp up and down on their ponies, swinging lassos and sticking on with main knee strength. "Main knee strength" is good, if mixed. The poster quaintly refers to "literary exercises" in the public square. From this item, it is gathered there will be addresses, orations, declamation, eloquence of the unfettered sort, singing, perhaps, and the sort of "essays" that high school girls and boys compose to read on such gala-occasions.

There will be concerts by the Pioneer band and the Safford City band, one during the parade and the other while and during the "literary exercises." The Safford volunteer fire department—joint arrangers with the Moose—is going to take a large part in the festivities. It will hold ladder drills, races, hose coupling contests and all the rest of the peculiarly fire departmentish activities.

Then there will be baseball between teams selected from Greenlee and Graham county towns. A "prize ring tournament" is the next but not gaudy way in which the poster refers to a lot of that many art which the state of Arizona frowns upon when indulged in in public.

A great picnic, at which the committee will provide iced drinks and sandwiches will end the celebration.

Cures Stubborn, Itchy Skin Troubles

"I could scratch myself to pieces" is often heard from sufferers of eczema, tetter, itch and similar skin eruptions. Don't scratch—stop the itching at once with Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. Its first application starts healing; the red, rough, scaly, itching skin is soothed by the healing and cooling medicines. Mrs. C. A. Einfeldt, Rock Island, Ill., after using Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment, writes: "This is the first time in nine years I have been free from the dreadful ailment."
